_____ Biodiesel Producer IV	$2,500.00 plus volume dues

Volume Dues

Annual dues for each of four Biodiesel Producer Classes will be calculated at a threshold amount of $2,500 per annum with an additional Volume Dues requirement based upon a per gallon annual surcharge. The Volume Dues fee will be based upon the nameplate production capabilities of the member or the actual annual production in Wisconsin, whichever is deemed larger.

The Volume Dues schedule is presented as follows:

Producer Classes	Total Nameplate Volume or Volume Produced and Marketed During Current Year Jan - Dec (Whichever is deemed greater)	Volume Dues
Class I Producer	100,000 -1,000,000	$.00 per gallon (No Volume Dues Required)
Class II Producer	1,000,001 to 10,000,000	$.00040 per gallon ($4,000 max)
Class III Producer	10,000,001 to 30,000,000	$.00030 per gallon ($9,000 max)
Class IV Producer	Over 30,000,000	$.00025 per gallon

[Examples: North Prairie Productions, LLC, at 45 million per year would pay $2,500 per year dues plus $11,250 per year in Volume Dues for a total of $13,750 per year. Sanimax at 20 million gallons per year would pay $2,500 per year dues plus $6,000 per year in Volume Dues for a total of $8,500 per year. A small producer [less than 1 million gallons per year] would pay $2,500 per year]

- (i) Receive newsletter, meeting notices, and other communications from WBA
- (ii) Retain voting rights as a member of WBA
- (iii) Designated seat on Board of Directors for this class of membership
- (iv) Receive benefit of promotional opportunities, such as advertising, articles, press releases, and/or weblink placed on website; invitation to make presentation to WBA meetings and other events and functions; etc. Although this promotional benefit of membership may be made available to others, the Supporting Members class of membership can expect to receive a special "advertising/promo" package that will appeal to these Members' desire to network and reach out to potential customers/clients in the biodiesel arena.
- (v) Seat with voting rights on the Legislative Affairs Committee. All Members have representation on the LAC by virtue of their Board Representation. Members who specifically value participation in the Gov't Affairs & Education effort can gain a seat at the table while contributing to the extraordinary costs involved.
